

2009 Liz Ellis Netball Clinics

After leading the Australian Netball team to victory at the World Netball Championships and following a remarkable 18 year career which includes among other things 2 Commonwealth Gold Medals, 4 World Championships, 4 Commonwealth Bank Trophy titles and as Australia's most capped netballer of all time (122 Tests), Liz Ellis retired from netball competition in 2007.

While you won't see Liz playing for Australia or the NSW Swifts again, you can join her on the court at the 2009 Liz Ellis Netball Clinics.

Now in their 13th year the Liz Ellis Netball Clinics are designed for players aged 7-15yrs and cater for all abilities. You will receive expert tuition from Liz and other leading players in attack and defence skills, tactics, ball work, movement and match play.

Ten clinics are scheduled in 2009 with places strictly limited. To avoid disappointment, book online NOW and save!
