KNA Executive Meeting 18th July 2020 at 9:30am at Canoon Road Netball Courts

Present:

Jo-Anne Perry – President

Ian Eldershaw – Treasurer

Don Tritton – Executive

Roslyn Roots – Executive

Nicole Sykes – Executive

Lee Field – Administration (Minutes)

JP advised St George Netball Association had been shut down by NSW Health for not adhering to the rules and that Liverpool, Campbelltown and Camden are delaying their start due to Covid 19 outbreaks in those areas.

Discussion re split site – 17 to 25 zone 1 and 1 to 12 zone 2. 2 exits and 2 entrances.
Kat will do a rundown re toilets.

9's NSG went well on Thursday night though we needed more volunteers especially in the car park to ensure safety of all children at drops off areas.

Lights Thursday night:-

Lighting is carpark is dangerous on exit from courts and KMC has been contacted and agreed to review prior to next game day

Don advised we may need to purchase portable lighting. He will assess based on KMC discussions

NNSW rule re changing of bibs – they have to sanitised not sprayed.

Tanya Sinclair is testing scoring process -a life app? - where scores can be sent to her.

Ian advised NNSW advice re their 2020 refunds taking 75% of kids voucher on refund. This has never been discussed by NNSW and was a surprise.

KNA has offered a full refund to all members to 1/7/20.

As we have advised full refund to Clubs, we will abide by that Exec agreed to carry loss of approximately $4,500.00 to KNA.

Ian will email NNSW to voice his disappointment of this decision

Nicole advised that Lofberg was going well and spectators were adhering to all the rules and guidelines. She will spend time there every Saturday.
